

SC Code of Regulations 13-410. Investment Adviser Representatives Registered with Multiple Investment Advisers.

A. An individual may apply to be registered as an investment adviser representative of an investment adviser or federal covered investment adviser by the filing of a separate application through the CB by each investment adviser or federal covered investment adviser, and the payment of separate application fees as required through the CB. By having multiple registration applications submitted on his or her behalf, the investment adviser representative affirmatively represents that he or she will make all disclosures to his or her clients and the affected investment adviser or federal covered investment adviser regarding potential conflicts of interests.

B. Each investment adviser or federal covered investment adviser that employs a multiple registered investment adviser representative shall comply with the requirements of the CB and IAB regarding the multiple registrations of the investment adviser representative.

C. The Securities Commissioner may deny the multiple registration applications if he determines that not in the best interests of the public.
